

FVMTA Student Scholarship Application

The Fox Valley Music Teachers award music scholarships to music students in the fall of each year. Scholarships are based on financial need, seriousness of intent, and potential. Money may be used for private lessons or other appropriate purposes such as lesson materials.

All ages are eligible. More than one member of a family may apply; however, each applicant must submit a separate application. Please include two letters of recommendation: one from the private teacher and one from an outside source who is not a family member.

This form, along with the recommendations, must be received by October 31st, 2024.

Forms must be mailed to one of the following address:

FVMTA Scholarship Committee
